8. Subject to the Act, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable, to be redeemed.
9. (1) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provision of the Act, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with:
  - (a) the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the total voting rights of that class, or

10. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class or by this Constitution as in force at the time of such issue, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking equally therewith.

  - (3) Subject to the provisions of the Act, if any share certificate or other document of title of shares or debentures shall be defaced, worn out, destroyed or lost, it may be renewed on such evidence being produced and such indemnity deemed adequate being given as the Directors shall require, and (in case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery of the old certificate, and upon payment of a fee not exceeding RM50, a new certificate or document in lieu thereof shall be given to the person entitled to such defaced, worn out, destroyed or lost certificate.

LIEN

14. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) registered in the name of a single person for all money presently payable by him or his estate to the Company; but the Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from this clause. The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

15. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.
16. To give effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchasers thereof. Subject to Clauses 26 and 27, the Company must lodge a notice on the change of Member(s) in relation to the shares sold to the purchaser with the Registrar. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and the Director shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall the purchaser's title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
17. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a similar lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

18. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any money unpaid on their shares and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each Member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine.
19. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by installments.
20. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
21. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding 8 per cent per annum as the Directors may determine, but the Directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of that interest wholly or in part.
22. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, shall for the purposes of this Constitution, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of the Act and this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, or otherwise shall apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
23. The Company may:-
  - (a) make arrangements on the issue of shares for varying the amounts and the times of payment of calls as between Members;
  - (b) accept from any Member the whole or a part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares although no part of that amount has been called up; and

- (c) pay dividends in proportion to the amount paid up on each share where a larger amount is paid up on some shares than on others.
24. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance payment of all or any part of the money uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any part of the money so advanced may (until the same would, but for the advance, become payable) pay interest or return at such rate not exceeding (unless the Company in general meeting shall otherwise direct) 8 per cent per annum as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying the sum in advance.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

25. (1) Subject to this Constitution or any other written laws, any Member may transfer all or any of his shares in the Company by a duly executed and stamped instrument of transfer and shall lodge the transfer with the Company.
- (2) The instrument shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor shall remain the holder of the shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the register of Members in respect thereof.
26. (1) To enable the Company to lodge a notice on change of Member(s) with the Registrar under Section 51 of the Act, the following items in relation to the transfer of shares must be delivered by the transferor to the registered office of the Company:-
- (a) the instrument of transfer duly executed and stamped;
  - (b) a fee not exceeding RM50 as the Directors from time to time may require;
  - (c) the certificate of the shares to which the instrument of transfer relates; and
  - (d) any other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.
- (2) Upon receipt of the items referred to in subparagraph (1), the Company must, subject to Clause 27, enter the name of the transferee in the register of Members as Member within thirty days and retain the instrument of transfer referred to in Clause 25, but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may refuse to register or delay registration shall (except in any case of fraud) be returned to the party presenting the same.
27. (1) The Directors may decline to register or delay registration of any transfer of shares not being fully paid shares, to a person of whom they do not approve and may also decline to register any transfer of shares on which the Company has a lien.
- (2) Provided in such event, within thirty days after the date on which the instrument of transfer was received by the Company, the Directors passed a resolution to refuse or delay the registration of the transfer and the resolution shall set out in full the reasons for refusing or delaying the registration. If the Directors refuse to register a transfer or delay registration, they shall within seven days of the resolution being passed, send the notice of resolution together with the reasons for refusing or delaying the registration of the transfer to the transferor and transferee.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

28. (1) Where a sole holder of shares of the Company dies, the Company may recognise only the legal personal representatives of the deceased as having any title to the deceased's interest in the shares.

- (2) Where a joint holder of shares of the Company dies, the Company may recognise only the survivor or survivors of the deceased as having any title to the deceased's interest in the shares, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
  - (1) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share in the register of Members or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee of the share in the register of Members. The Company shall register the person as a Member of the Company in respect of the shares within sixty days from receiving the notification.
  - (2) Despite subparagraph (1), the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or delay registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy.
30. If the person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he elects to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions, and provisions of this Constitution and the FSA relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that Member.
31. Where the registered holder of any share dies or becomes bankrupt his personal representative or the assignee of his estate, as the case may be, shall, upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the Directors in that behalf, be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages, and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of the Company, or to voting, or otherwise), as the registered holder would have been entitled to if he had not died or become bankrupt; and where two or more persons are jointly entitled to any share in consequence of the death of the registered holder they shall, for the purposes of this Constitution, be deemed to be joint holders of the share.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

32. If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
33. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
34. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
35. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit.

36. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all money which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares (together with interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from the date of the forfeiture on the money for the time being unpaid if the Directors think fit to enforce payment of the interest), but his liability shall cease if and when the Company receives payment in full of all such money in respect of the shares.
37. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company, has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
38. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, or disposal of the share.
39. The provisions of these clauses as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

40. The Company may by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting convert any paid-up shares into stock and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any number.
41. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner and subject to the same clauses as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred or as near thereto as circumstances admit; but the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum.
42. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of stock which would not if existing in shares have conferred that privilege or advantage.
43. Provision of this Constitution as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" in this Constitution shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

44. The Company may from time to time alter its share capital in any one or more of the following ways by passing an ordinary resolution to:-

- (c) subdivide its shares or any of the shares, whatever is in the subdivision, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived.
- 45. All new shares shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of general meetings in proportion, as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the share offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company.
- 46. The Company may reduce its share capital by a special resolution and confirmation by the Court in accordance with Section 116 of the Act or a special resolution supported by a solvency statement in accordance with Section 117 of the Act.

  - (3) Participation by a Member using any technology or method referred to in subparagraph (2) above shall be treated as presence in person by that person at the said meeting and shall be counted towards the quorum notwithstanding the fact that he/she is not physically present at the main venue where the meeting is to be held.
  - (4) Such a meeting shall not be deemed to have proceeded for such period or periods where communication facilities using any technology or method referred to in subparagraph (2) above have been disconnected. The chairperson of such meeting shall have the discretion to postpone the meeting which had been disconnected and which cannot be reconnected within a reasonable time to another date and time to be agreed by the Members of the meeting.
51. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine.

- (2) When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as in the case of the original meeting.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

55. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairperson directs, and the result of the poll shall be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded, but a poll demanded on the election of a chairperson or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith.
